

MINN SUMMIT 2023

November 3rd, 2023

Participate in Summit 2023!

The MINN Summit is an entire day conference offering globally-minded organizations and individuals a forum to connect, learn, and create lasting connections. Attendees represent dozens of INGOs. The Summit provides sponsors a unique opportunity to connect with practitioners and share insights that are designed to foster relationships and propel international development in a changing world.

Past Summit Highlights

- Summit 2022: Hosted an International News Decision-Making Panel. Presented Abraham Leno, Eastern Congo Initiative as our keynote speaker
- Summit 2021: First Inaugural Founder's Panel. The Ambassador of the African Union to the United States of America, delivered our keynote address.
- Summit 2020: Hosted a Panel on transforming the aid system to give more power to local communities & a Panel on leading International Development from Minnesota

MINN Global Report

This year we will be releasing the 3rd installment of the MINN Global Report

Special thanks to all the organizations that participated in the Global Report Survey.

About Summit Marketplace:

The Marketplace offers you the space to engage with this audience, by providing you with exposure to our wide network of international development professionals and supporters. We would like to offer you the exclusive opportunity to help people learn more about you and your purpose, while you also attend the entire full day conference!

Marketplace is open throughout the entire day. The agenda offers dedicated marketplace hours to encourage attendees to visit tables and learn about organizations.

MINN Membership

Our membership:

MINN offers both individual and organization membership options. Our MINN members are uniquely engaged in what we do and actively support our work. Consider joining this group of talented practitioners! Join MINN

MINN Fellows

Our Fellows:

The MINN Fellowship program seeks to foster diverse viewpoints at the MINN Summit and within the Minnesota International NGO Network (MINN), provide professional enrichment, pursue networking opportunities, build long-lasting relationships between traditionally underrepresented communities and MINN, and elevate voices within MINN and the international development community in Minnesota.

Applications for the next cohort open Summer 2023.
